

Hello, my name is Randy Halberda. I am a resident of Indiana. I am writing to request that if the FCC decides to institute a no call list that you still allow states to maintain such a list, or simply avoid regulation and let the states continue to deal with this issue individually. Indiana's law has worked quite nicely, and I would hate to see the requirements softened in our state. Thanks for your time.